

Video Tips Easy Examples

Encourage More Words

1

Chat with your child and comment on what he says. Avoid multiple yes/no questions. Offer other possibilities to consider to extend conversations.

2

Create turn taking in a baby's play. Prompt your toddler to problem solve. Expect a preschooler to discuss his thinking.

3

When you encourage more words you guide children to express frequently, share additional ideas and become communicators.

JTC JOHN
TRACY
CLINIC

The leading diagnostic and educational center for young children with hearing loss

806 West Adams Boulevard, Los Angeles, California 90007
Tel: (213) 748-5481 | Fax: (213) 749-1651
Email: pals@jtc.org | Website: www.jtc.org

For more family-friendly materials about childhood hearing loss, listening/language/speech and education visit <http://www.jtc.org/ideas-advice/video-tips/>