

Video Tips Easy Examples

Enjoy Repetition

1

Sing songs with repetitive lyrics. Choose fun books with recurring phrases. Join a child in favorite activities again and again.

2

Imitate your baby as you play together. Pause for your toddler to add repeating words. Listen to a preschooler retell a story.

3

When you enjoy repetition you help children listen purposefully, learn by constructing meaning, and anticipate interactions.

The leading diagnostic and educational center for young children with hearing loss

806 West Adams Boulevard, Los Angeles, California 90007

Tel: (213) 748-5481 | Fax: (213) 749-1651

Email: pals@jtc.org | Website: www.jtc.org

© 2017 JOHN TRACY CLINIC

For more family-friendly materials about childhood hearing loss, listening/language/speech and education visit <http://www.jtc.org/ideas-advice/video-tips/>